

LabAroma.

LabSchool

LabAroma Introduction

LabAroma is a chemistry based, aromatherapy focused, software tool which formulates the chemistry behind your essential oil blending. See your blends presented with a colourful detailed chemistry breakdown as well as a physical and physiological analysis!

Make your blending experience rapid, accurate and fun with LabAroma.

As a student of West Coast Institute of Aromatherapy you can receive LabAroma for $80 annually from today in three simple steps.

Step 1 – Go to www.labaroma.com/labschools

Step 2 – Enter your Unique Code which is LABSCHOOLS0008

Step 3 – Add your payment details and gain access to your very own LabAroma Learn Subscription.

LabAroma Features

- Gain access to an Aromatherapy tool box with over 200 GC/MS tested essential oils, CO₂'s and 120 vegetable oils and base ingredients all for you to blend with.
- Information sheets for each ingredient with their chemical analysis and botanical information clearly displayed and printable.
- Know exact percentages of each chemical group and component in your formulas.
- Understand how your blend will affect the mind and body with analytical reporting.
- Add your favorite essential oils and their information to your ingredient database and blend with your very own oils.
- Save your blend to your own Blend Library and print your blends in colorful pdf's including all your analysis and information
- Easily determine the cost of your blends.
- Access to LabAroma's exclusive and inspirational Recipe Library.